

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

PREFACE.

THIS work was originally intended to appear about the 25th August, 1900, the date of the Centenary of the Regiment, but its publication was then postponed until after the conclusion of the war in South Africa, and a further delay has been occasioned by a continued endeavour to render it as complete and accurate as possible in every respect.

The book necessarily embraces the contents of the original List, published by Mr. Stooks Smith on 1st September, 1851, but the lapse of so many years, with the large augmentations that have since taken place in the Regiment, and the occurrence of the Crimean, Indian, and African Wars, in which its Battalions took part, have increased the contents of the former fully threefold as compared with those of the original work. Without going into superfluous details, it may be mentioned that of a total of 658 notices of officers in Mr. Smith's List, 233 only were completed in it; of the remainder, 79 (of whom 14 survive) were at the date of its publication on the strength of the Regiment, and the balance were serving otherwise or had quitted the service. Of the latter, many predeceased Mr. Smith, but unknown to him, and these have now as far as possible been traced. In the new book 765 entirely new names have been introduced, and, with less than a dozen exceptions, these have all been accounted for in the present volume. In the grand total of 1433 names, it has been thought advisable to include those of some officers who never actually served in it: some of these exchanged into the Regiment in order to retire by sale of commission, and on doing so were given brevet promotion as officers of the Rifle Brigade, and others exchanged to half pay of the corps from other regiments.

The Compiler would wish to express his sincere thanks to the many officers and others to whom he is indebted for various information.

Extract from the "London Gazette," 24th December, 1858.

War Office, 24th December, 1858.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to confirm the grant of the Decoration of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Privates of Her Majesty's Forces and Indian Military Forces, which Decoration has been provisionally conferred upon them by the Commander-in-Chief in India, in accordance with the Rules laid down in Her Majesty's Warrant, instituting the same, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in that country, during the operations under his personal Command, as recorded against their several names, viz. :—

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which conferred.
* *  84th Regt. (now of the 7th Hussars)	 *  Captain the Hon. Augustus Henry Archibald Anson Date of Acts of Bravery, 28th September and 16th November, 1857	 * * * * For conspicuous bravery at Bolundshahur, on the 28th September, 1857. The 9th Lt. Drs. had charged through the town, and were reforming in the Serai; the enemy attempted to close the entrance by drawing their carts across it, so as to shut in the cavalry, and form a cover from which to fire upon them. Captain Anson, taking a lance, dashed out of the gateway, and knocked the drivers off their carts. Owing to a wound in his left hand, received at Delhi, he could not stop his horse, and rode into the middle of the enemy, who fired a volley at him, one ball passing through his coat. At Lucknow, at the assault of the Secundra Bagh, on 16th November, 1857, he entered with the storming-party on the gates being burst open. He had his horse killed, and was himself slightly wounded. He has shown the greatest gallantry on every occasion, and has slain many enemies in fight.—Despatch from Major-General Sir James Hope Grant, k.c.b., dated 12th August, 1858.
2nd Batt. R. B.	Captain (now Bt.-Major) Henry Wilmot Corporal W. Nash Private David Hawkes Date of Act of Bravery, 11th March, 1858	For conspicuous gallantry at Lucknow on the 11th March, 1858. Captain Wilmot's Company was engaged with a large body of the enemy, near the Iron Bridge. That officer found himself at the end of a street with only four of his men, opposed to a considerable body. One of the four was shot through both legs, and became utterly helpless: the two men lifted him up, and although Private Hawkes was severely wounded, he carried him for a considerable distance, exposed to the fire of the enemy, Captain Wilmot firing with the men's rifles, and covering the retreat of the party.—Despatch of Brigadier-General Walpole, c.b., dated 20th March, 1858.

The R. B. (The Prince Consort's Own)	Captain W. N. Congreve	At Colenso, on the 15th December, 1899, the detachments serving the guns of the 14th and 66th Batteries, Royal Field Artillery, had all been either killed, wounded, or driven from their guns by Infantry fire at close range, and the guns were deserted. About 500 yards behind the guns was a donga in which some of the few horses and drivers left alive were sheltered. The intervening space was swept with shell and rifle fire. Captain Congreve, R. B., who was in the donga, assisted to hook a team into a limber, went out, and assisted to limber up a gun. Being wounded, he took shelter; but seeing Lieutenant Roberts fall, badly wounded, he went out again and brought him in. Captain Congreve was shot through the leg, through the toe of his boot, grazed on the elbow and the shoulder, and his horse shot in three places.
